

ARTS & CULTURE (TEAM)
T'ANG QUARTET

"When we realize what we want to achieve, that becomes our vision of perfection. Striving towards that becomes an obsession. Only coming close is the satisfaction."

The pride of the local classical music scene, The T'ang Quartet wins deserved admiration for bringing the beauty of classical music to the masses. The talented four - Ng Yu Ying, Ang Chek Meng, Lionel Tan and Leslie Tan - served with the Singapore Symphony Orchestra before coming together as the well-received T'ang Quartet. Combining mastery and artistry in music with a very unique sense of style and showmanship, the T'ang Quartet has performed in venues that range from schools to discotheques. For their remarkable work and effort, it has been well profiled in media everywhere.

Applause, Applause, Applause.

- Resident string quartet in the Sheperd School of Music, Rice University, USA, 1997

- Fellowship for Advanced Quartet Program, Aspen Music Festival, Colorado, 1998
- Shouse Institute Artiste at the Great Lake Music Festival, Michigan, 1999
- Third and Special Jury Prize, Second Joseph Joachim International Chamber Music Competition, Germany, 1999
- Bartok Prize, Prague-Vienna-Budapest Internationaler Sommerakademie 2000
- Japanese Chamber of Commerce and Industry Cultural Award 1999/2000

Music Of The Heart

The T'ang Quartet has actively shared their music with students here and in Australia through the programmes of the National Arts Council, and the Musica Viva In Schools. It is a much sought-after name for master-classes, and its talented members have selflessly delivered charity performances for the National Cancer Centre, National Volunteer Centre and Action for Aids.

